Name: Ms. Tina Avery
Citizenship: 11 years
Residence: VHS Lab, West Boylston Middle/ High School

The class of 2011 wishes to recognize Ms. Tina Avery for her consistent effort here at West Boylston Middle/High School. Ms. Avery has been working in the WB School system for eleven years, all of which have been filled with incredible dedication. We are extremely thankful to have been surrounded by Ms. Avery's upbeat, charming disposition since our elementary years in computer class. In the classroom, she oversees the entire Virtual High School program and organizes it to ensure that every student achieves the best of his or her ability. In addition, Ms. Avery is very dedicated to helping animals. She started the Helping Paws club in hope to rescue and provide for animals in the shelters. Ms. Avery also helped organize the Europe trip, which many seniors attended, and is currently planning the next journey across seas. The class of 2011 is especially thankful for Ms. Avery, and would like to dedicate the 2011 "Looking Back and Moving Forward" yearbook to her as a small token of appreciation.

Thank you !

Congrats!

A Special Thank You

The yearbook committee would like to extend it's deepest thanks to Ms. DeRosa who put unbelievable effort into this book. Without her dedication, this would not have been possible. It is with her guidance that we are able to put this together for the entire school to remember treasured memories of the year. We are entirely greatful for her support and wish her the best of luck next year!

Sincerely,
Lynsay Whitney & the Yearbook Committee

To the 2011 Lion's Pride Yearbook Staff-

Looking Back on this book, I have to say that you have all done such a great job illustrating our theme throughout. I am so thankful for your dedication, and for the countless hours you have put into making this book possible. West Boylston High School is very lucky to have all seven of our staff members, who put together this entire book. Thank you to Kendra Sloan, Caroline Delaney, and Emily O'Brien for the work you did on the sections you edited.

I want to especially thank Alexis Condon for the enormous job of putting together the whole senior section. It is no easy feat to compile all that information, and, yet, incredibly, she did it by the deadline!

Thank you to Kaleigh Ryder who could always be counted on to have pages done early. I appreciate your dedication. I knew I could count on you.

Magda Mitaszka- What can I say? You came to our rescue. Without you, our entire ad section would have been non-existent. Thank you for helping Lynsay to fill up the whole ad section, for all the ad designing, and for the countless hours you put into scanning and verifying all the ads. You are a true hero.

To our Editor in Chief Lynsay Whitney, I am so thankful I have had the honor of working with you. You have a wonderful sense of design. You are incredibly reliable, and I thank you for helping to make every deadline, faithfully. You are leaving big shoes to fill, and I am truly going to miss you. Good luck as you are now Moving Forward.

Best Wishes, and Thank you, Ms. DeRosa

"Believe you can and you're halfway there."
- Theodore Roosevelt

I've had senioritis since our sophomore year and now we're actually seniors. This is so weird, I can't believe it! These four years have been, alright and I just wanted to thank everyone in my life just for being in it. Most importantly I would like to thank my crazy family. We aren't an ordinary family but I'm glad we're different. Mom, thank you because you're a great mother to me, I owe you everything, thank you for supporting me and always caring. Dad, thank you for also being a good parent. Thank you for always believing in me, you give me hope. Thank you for believing that I can do whatever I put my mind to. To my sisters, Allie we used to fight ALL the time but now I see you as a really good friend. I like telling each other everything. I love you and you're great sister. Alesska, you're crazy! But I love you and the way you are, and you know that, and maybe one day you'll admit that you love me too. Never change. I'm going to miss you guys a lot when I go to college. Lots of Love.

"Looking back on what we've done this year: it was the best times; it was the worst times. But we built something here."
- A Day To Remember

The best and worst four years aka highschool. Can't believe I survived. I owe it mostly to my dad, you're my best friend and I literally wouldn't have survived without our hours of conversations thanks for always being there & pushing me. Jes Laino you're the most fun/awesome ninja-twin ever, I'll always remember all our crazy fun times together. Steph, I can always count on you bestie. You mean so much to me. I wish we became this close years ago <3 Marissa&Tobie: I absolutely LOVE you guys, nuff said. Caitlin Ahern always giving me countless rides & advice. I don't know where I'd be without you, honestly you're such a huge part of my life. Mia S, Catherine B, Chris Sotir, Rachel C, Jake G, Andrew R, Emily O; so many good memories you're all unforgettable! Akosua you're like a sister. I can talk to you about anything. You're so unlike anyone I ever have/will meet. Thank you to anybody in my life: you're all amazing. I'm so lucky!

- Mark Twain

We went as quickly as we came. These couple years have forever shaped my life, along with the people I've met and the places I've been. Kudos to every single person who was able to put up with me day in and day out. I'm looking at you, Cory, Sarah, Michelle, Danielle, Jill, Tyler, Christiane and Kevin. And of course my family. You helped me pull through so many obstacles, I've lost count. You kept me sane when I thought it was impossible. I am forever thankful.

When I walked into school freshman year I had mixed emotions. It's hard to believe that four years have gone by so quick. I'd like to thank all my teachers for helping me succeed, and my friends making it enjoyable.

"I stand before, a road that will lead, Into the unknown. At least unknown to me. I want to go, but I'm paralysed with fear. Fear of a choice, where the outcome isn't clear.

I am both relieved and terrified that high school is over. It's a major step to growing up, and it's time for me to move on. I know that I wasn't at WB as long as the rest of the students but I feel like I have been. I made friends here I will never forget, and met some of the nicest people ever. I want to thank my family and friends, (without sounding like a cheesy award winner), for all the love, support and amazing times. I love the idea that WBHS is a comfortable place for people to grow as individuals and be who they want, without the stereotypical cliques of high school. I love the so called "outcast" peeps of mine, even if most people don't get you, I do. I will remember to stand out as much as possible, because ordinary is boring.

The years go by way too fast. It seems like just yesterday I was a freshman. I had a lot of fun all throughout high school. I have to give thanks to those teachers that have helped me through the years. Mrs. Caruso, thank you for guiding me through French II to French IV. You made the classes interesting and fun with all your stories about France. Ms. DeRosa, thank you for a great Algebra II class and 3 weeks of AP calculus, for the time being I had fun. I also give thanks to my friends, without them I wouldn't have been able to make it through high school. My family as well deserves thanks. Thank you mom for keeping me on task, Dad for helping me with projects and bringing me out skiing, my sister Abby for keeping me in line, and of course my little brother Peter for entertaining me when no one was around. I wish the best of luck to everyone and have a bright future!

First, I'd like to thank my parents. Mom and Dad, if it wasn't for the both of you I would've never gotten through high school. Thank you for giving me the motivation I needed to succeed in school, I love you both! Amy, we used to fight all day everyday, but now you're like my best friend, I love how close we've gotten over the years. Friends, without you guys I don't know how I would've survived school. There are so many memories that I'll never forget! Mikayla and Kaleigh- You are my sisters, and I love you both to death! Thanks for always being there for me through the good and bad times!<3 Haylee and Catherine- I've had a ton of fun with the both of you! (; you're my party girls! Andreeeeew- You're my brother! I love how everyone thinks we're dating, that just shows what great friends we are, love you bud! Derek- We've shared so many laughs and good times together! I never stop smiling when I'm around you. Thanks for everything! (: I can't believe high school's over! I'm really excited to move on to new adventures. Good luck Class of 2011, see ya around!

Well, it's gone by pretty fast, and there's no way I could have ever made it without the support of my friends and family. Dad, you've been my idol throughout my life and I'm very grateful for everything you've done for me. Mom, thanks for pushing me not only throughout high school, but also from the day I was born. Chris, honestly man I don't think we could be any different but, as brothers I think that over the years it has brought us some interesting times I'll remember 'till the day I die. Caitlyn, my life's been a lot different from the day I met you (for the better of course). The last year has been the best days of my life, and that's because almost every one of them has been spent with you. Ben, we grew up together man, I'm looking forward to taking that Texas road trip. I'd also like to thank Kayla for being like a sister to me. And to everyone else, AC, SH, TR, KQ, MG, MH, AH, EM, SP, DP, and MO. Thanks to all my teachers as well. Goodbye WB!

So the moment we've been waiting for has finally come. We're graduating! Ahhh, these past four years have gone by so fast and I honestly cannot believe it's here. First, I want to give a big thanks (and hug) to my family. Mom and dad, you've pushed me through so much during high school, thank you. To my big sis, thank you for always being there to talk to. To Paul Francis, I can always count on you to be creepin around a corner, thanks for that. Love you guys! To my girlsss- I'll never forget our hours of driving around aimlessly, our intense heart to hearts and of course the nights when we would completely geeeeek out over the dumbest things. You've all given me the best high school experience and I cannot even imagine college with out you guys. To my boys you're some of the goofiest people I have ever met but you've always made me laugh :) Lastly- to all my big bad juniors (now seniors) good luck and have an amazing senior year- it goes by too fast. So here's the last goodbye to West Boylston and to the class of 2011, we did it!

So the end of the year has finally come at last. The years have seemed to fly by quickly, looking back in retrospect. I would like to give a massive thank you to my parents for putting up with all of my procrastination and late night projects over the years. I'd also like to put in a debt of gratitude towards Mrs. Hebert, the music teacher, who put up with me for all these high school years. You have truly impacted my life for the better and will always be the teacher I remember the most from high school. Team New England, you are my second family and I will never forget you. Joe George, although we joke around a ton about not really being friends, you've been a true friend throughout high school, and I'd like to thank you for that (and no, you still aren't getting that hi-five). To the person who made my high school years bearable, I'd like to thank my best friend Katie. I honestly would never have made it to this point without you, I love you more than words can express. With that said, see all of you on the other side.

sophomore/junior year- alright when can I get out of here?
senior year- do you think I could maybe stay just a little longer?
WBMHS has been like a second home to me. I felt entertained and wanted. What was on the black boards wasn't always fun but the people were always interesting. From Dan Bilton's divine debates to Mrs. Tranter's death defying tales. Oh yes and how could you forget the daily dilemmas of madam president Alexis. Thank you to my grandparents for raising and supporting me. To my aunt for her valued advice and opinions. Thank you to the beach hottie for making everything in high school worth it. My bike may be gone but I'm still here for you. Good luck to the class of 2011.

P.S. I'm only attending our reunion if there's a slip and slide.

I honestly don't even know where to begin! These four years have legit flown by, I'm still in shock! First I'd like to thank my family. Mom and dad, thanks for standing by me through everything, I can't express how much it means to me! Kyle, you were my first friend. Marin, I can't express how much I love you, I'm so happy that you're here! I also couldn't have made it through without my friends. Ali, I don't even know where to begin, we've been through so much together, you're like my sister. I don't know what I'd do without you :) Alissa and Haylee you two are my party girls! We've had soooo much fun, basement memories, football games, and so many more! Kaleigh thanks for babysitting me all the time, I'd be so lost without you. Maybe we can control all fire usage. Mik, gym class junior year was the best, it made my life, you have no idea. Harassing Christian and Rachael, so funny! Gabby, we've had some pretty intense convo's, all those random walks to Honey Farms, creepin on facebook, oh god. I'm gunna miss you all!

Dood. Senior year. Wow. Where to begin? It's hard to believe we've all been together for 12 years. There've been so many good memories I don't think I could list them all. To my best friends Michelle, Dee, Sarah, Danielle, Cory, and the rest of the gang you guys are awesome. I don't know what I'd do without you. Thanks so much for always being there for me, no matter what. We've had so many good times together going to Friendly's, the mall, Hampton, Maine, camping, being hooligans, and even just hanging out doing nothing. To my other friends Alyssa, Jill, Gretchen, Jesse, Jamie, and all you guys I'm gonna miss you. Thanks for keeping me entertained at lunch with your craziness. Football games and parties were awesome, and of course, art class was pretty shweet too. (STRAIGHT LINES.) And to my family, I love you guys. Thanks so much for everything you've done for me. And to the class of 2011 it's been fun guys. Goodbye and good luck!

So, high school has been a very interesting and enlightening experience. I've messed up a lot and learned a lot. There are so many people that I will never forget and memories that I will have forever. To my family- mom, dad, and Katie thank you for putting up with me for all these years. To my friends-you know who you are; you always make me laugh and we have so many memories together. I would insert inside jokes here, but everybody does that and nobody ever gets them, so...this is it. To the class of 2011: peace out and good luck.

I feel like it went too fast, I know I couldn't have done it without everyone. Mom and Dad, school without you would've been so hard, you kept me on my feet and helped me through all the years, through thick and thin, and we all know there was a lot to help me through. I wouldn't have made it without you guys, I love you so much. Brianna, we went to school together for our whole lives. When you graduated things were different, but I made it through fine. We fought a lot but what siblings don't; I love you, thanks for the support. Dray, I couldn't have done this without you, you were always pushing me to do well and helped me when I needed it, you're amazing, and being with you through all my high school years was so amazing. I love you so much Andrea. One kid I couldn't live without would be Matt, Matty G, what's good. You've been my best friend since we were three; let's keep it that way man, thanks for being there through everything. Other thank yous, S.B, R.P, A.R, P.G, K.Q, and K.S. Well, that flew by! I know everyone always says time goes by fast, but wow! To sum it all up, it's been amazing. I never imagined enjoying high school so much, but you guys are awesome! I couldn't have asked for a better class, so I just want to say thanks to the class of 2011. It's been great growing up with everyone in these fleeting, yet slow moving years. I sincerely wish you all the best of luck! I really want to thank my family (Moriah, you're included in this) for being the most faithful source of support, love, and fun that I've known. I also want to say thank you to my amazing friends whom I love so dearly, and especially to my other half, Laura, for being the one I could always be myself with. You guys are the ones who kept me smiling through it all. I thank my God for you everyday, and although my high school experience is coming to an end, your importance in my life never will! It doesn't feel like it, but our time has come and we're actually graduating high school! I'm so excited for the future & experiences I'm going to have but I'm going to miss little WeBo a lot! I've lived in WeBo and gone to its schools all my life, so I've never known anything different. I've had some of the greatest times of my life here: the mammoth crossing sign in 7th grade, to grapes & the Giver with Mrs. Carter in 8th grade. I've had great times in high school: Scuba Steve in health, basketball, poker night. I have so many people I want to thank for making my high school career so memorable. I want to thank my parents & my sister for always being there for me & always pushing me to be the best I can be. Thank you mom & dad for everything that you've done for me and I know that's a lot. It's officially over. I can't believe time has gone by so quickly. It really doesn't seem like it was that long ago that we were all in elementary school getting to know each other. First off, I want to thank my mom for being there for me through everything. Without you, I wouldn't be where I am today and I thank you so much for that. Summer, you're the best sister I could have ever asked for. Sure, we don't get along all the time but I couldn't imagine having to grow up without you. Gram, Butch, Grampa & Eddie, thank you for supporting me through it all, I don't know what I'd do without any of you. I love you all so much. I had been thinking about high school and how fast it seems to have gone. I thought, "Freshman year was only 4 years ago, that's hardly anything." But now I see the reality of just how much I have changed in 4 years. I went from the kid who loved the X-Men and tried too hard to be the class clown to the kid who loves Call of Duty and is the class clown. The one constant was baseball. I've never done anything as gratifying than hitting a grand slam in my first Varsity at bat. More than just my personality and interests have changed. My entire universe was rocked to its foundation when my father passed away in 2008. I thought that everything would be okay but after two years, I realize just how much it impacted me. When I lost my father, my friends stepped up and really helped me get through. I owe my sanity to Baker, Stoych, Sam, Cole, Cody, Nick, Tom and Feeney.

Well, it has been a long journey. Twelve years of school, and now I'm graduating. I want to say how happy I am that I've completed high school, but I must thank some people first. My parents have always been there to help me with schoolwork. My grandmother has also been there for me. I want to thank my teachers who taught me so much. To my friends, you're a great group of people who are fun to hang out with. High school is over and I'm off to bigger places. I hope college is fun for me as well as the rest of you graduating with me. Lastly, congratulations on completing high school and good luck Class of 2011.

Well, well, well.. I can't believe we're graduating high school; I remember watching my brother graduate four years ago, thinking this day would never come. First and foremost, huge thanks to Mom, Dad, Jo-Anne, Tony, and Ross for putting up with me for all these years... I couldn't have done it without you guys! Rachel- Thanks for being my other half. We always find a way to geek balls at the most ridiculous things. Bahamas, "We live 1.25 miles away from each other," "You had 2!?," NO HANDS, "I will nevah do that!," Pretty Boy Swag. I don't even need to worry about it because I know our friendship will last forever, can't wait for my deluxe suite at the Snow Inn :-). Alyssa- I'm so glad you came into my life, you're my soul sister. "Seventeen and living the dream," monkey meat, petri dish, rockstars don't sleep, #whatismylife, let's get it. I can't wait to take over the world with you. To the rest- Thanks for making my high school experience one for the books. This is just another chapter in our lives. I hope that y'all aren't too cool to come back for the reunion :-).

I have dreamed of graduating for so long now but the reality of things hasn't quite hit me yet. I am excited but nervous as to where my life will take me and which of you I will ever come across again. First of all, I could have never made it through high school without my family helping me all those late nights with homework and giving me advice whenever I needed it. I am sad to be leaving them but they know they have done an excellent job with me. Also, to my close friends, Haylee, Alissa, Kaleigh, and Catherine who I have shared great laughs and experiences with. I am so lucky to have had all of you to make each painful day at Webo not so bad! :) Also to Chris who has been there for me each and everyday to always make me laugh or smile. I'll never forget all the awesome times we shared and you have really made high school a time for me I will never forget. Thank you all for being such a huge part of my life! As for the class of 2011, CONGRATULATIONS:)

I still remember my first day of kindergarten- terrifying but still exhilarating. I was scared but so was everyone else. I'll never forget the people who have drifted in and out of my life since that young age, and I can't believe I've been on this journey of "growing up" with everyone for so long. This is only the beginning; words can't describe my dreams for the future. Hard work will pay off. Mommy, thank you for holding life together and helping me find the positive in the toughest of times. Thank you for your passionate work as a mother and for supporting every financial issue, music lessons, everything. Finally thank you for being my best friend. I'm so blessed to have someone like you to watch movies with on the weekends. Veronica, I love you, you're my sister. Thank you for being there. You're the rebel in me. It's weird to say we are seniors! But WE DID IT!! This year has been great. I would like to thank all the teachers that have helped and put up with me this year! I would like to thank Coach S for everything he has done, starting with helping me from the football game to the bus all the way to class with Mrs. Howard. I'm gonna miss being called "Twinkle Toes Gallivan." Good luck with Nicholas and everything. I would like to give Mii Houck a shout out haha great times! Kayla I love you! We need to make some more McDonald's trips haha ;) and now to the class of 2011- I would like to thank you guys for making this the best year of high school for me! Good luck to all of you! P.S. I'm sorry Mr. Gym teacher for giving you a hard time!

I wonder if, the journey will be,
Shorter as I hope, or much longer than it seems. But either way, I've made up my mind. I'm through feeling scared, I'm leaving that behind.

Sooo, Now it's time to gooo.

And I take, the first step of a million more.

This is it. These years have been tough and beyond stressful, but unforgettable. I've learned a lot in and out of the classroom. As a freshman, I was shy and quiet, but as I matured, I became "Joe George." Mom, Dad, and Ben - Thank you for helping me with homework troubles, letting me have the computer for all those AP notes, doing the artistic aspects of projects, and giving me support when needed. For all my friends, I truly appreciate what you've done and thank you for keeping me on the right path when I wandered off. Other people that I need to thank are my freshman gym class members, sophomore VHS class members, the kids at internship, and my European companions for the impact you all had on me. (You know who you are). Class of 2011: As I said at Day for Change, I say again. All of you have a special place in my heart, and I'll try not to forget any of you (No promises). I wish you success with all of life's craziness. Also, if for some miraculous reason, I run for president, I expect all of your votes. Go seniors and God bless America!

I want to thank my dad for always being there to put a smile on my face. "You always make me laugh and make me happy. You've always been so supportive and I want to say 'Thanks' for being such an awesome dad. Thanks for everything."
To my brother Matt, "Thanks for being the best brother a sister could ever have. I love being able to hang with you. You're truly the best!"
Thanks to all my friends for making these past four years great and have been so good to me. I appreciate it. Thanks to the whole class of 2011 for also making this class fun and enjoyable. It's time to move on to the next chapter of our lives. I wish the best for all of you! Good Luck!

Senior year! I could not have made it to this point without my parents. They raised me, took care of me and kept me out of trouble (as best as possible) and for that I am extremely grateful. Alex, my man, best friends for life no doubt we've been through it all and managed to stay friends, that's an accomplishment. Ryan, no one is like us and our talks and jokes is what kept me going. Mike Passmore, I'm glad we became friends throughout the past two year's man; it's been a fun ride. As for my boys in college, Nick and Jimmy, from hanging out all day to hanging out as late as we possibly could, I can't wait to be in the same position or even in that same school as you guys next year, that should be an interesting new adventure. Veronica and I= the last two remaining. This year has hit every extreme; low points and high points and everything in the middle and I can't wait to open a new chapter in my life. College will be a big change but I will always look back and remember my life as a teenager at West Boylston High School.

I would not be the person I am today if it were not for the many bumps in the road -- every up and down has been a defining moment. Being a senior, however, means it is time to leave the past behind and jump into the infinite abyss of life. I believe that each and every one of us has the potential to do something exceptional if we fill our hearts with confidence and determination. The day after we officially graduate, spend some time doing something out of your comfort zone. Instead of surfing the internet or watching another rerun of Jersey Shore, strike up a conversation with a stranger. Go see a movie by yourself. Heck, try skydiving. Take the first leap to greatness and perhaps the mark you leave on this small town in the middle of Massachusetts will be fantastic. I would like to thank all my friends for making me laugh, Mrs. Tetler for being like a second mother to me, and my parents for supporting me in everything I do. To the class of 2011, best wishes, and don't forget to be awesome.

- Chuck Palahniuk

A lot of people say that these four years flew by really fast, but I really don't think they did. I've taken the time to enjoy them rather than let them pass rapidly. They truly are the best years I've had with the best friends I could ever imagine. So...long list...Cory, Danielle, Dee, Sarah, Jill, Tyler, Kevin, and Christiane, thank you guys for always being there for me and helping me through everything; I'm pretty sure these years wouldn't have been good if I hadn't had you guys there. Not only that, but you guys have changed the person that I was in Freshman year, and I'm really happy that I can say that I've grown up so much and learned a lot of things.

Wow senior year has come so fast! What are we all going to do with our lives? The friends we made here throughout the years I hope we all keep for many more years to come. To all my friends you guys really know how to have fun and make me laugh. I am going to miss all you guys after this year is over. I love how my friends cheer me up every day and they all live so close to me. The time is now so let's make the best of it every chance we get. We have grown little by little as a class which is a start to even greater things. I have to say thanks Tobie for being one of my best friends and the person who helps me get through anything. Thank you to my parents who have always been there for me through thick and thin. Thank you for pushing me to do my best in everything I could. If it wasn't for you guys I don't know where I would be in this world today, so I appreciate everything you have done! The biggest thanks go to you guys!

I can't believe June 3rd is already around the corner, it seems like the past 3 years flew by faster than I could ever imagine. I'd like to thank my mom and Harv (YRAHH!) for pushing me and to keep telling me that I can do it and never give up because they knew I could do it. Ant- since 7th grade you've been my best friend and have stuck by me through everything and I'll never forget going to all the shows with you. I especially won't forget playing you Sophomore year. Nish- playing football with you for the past 3 years was a great experience. I'm glad we could build a great friendship off that. Matt & Alex- I grew up with you guys and I know I could never forget "THE LANE". GREAT times guys. AJ- I really enjoyed the 4 years with you in high school and hope you don't go far because I know I'm going to need a good friend around. I know I can count on you. Well, I have to say that the past four years really flew by, and now all I can do is eagerly await the experiences ahead of me. However, I wouldn't have been able to make it through anything without the wonderful support of the people around me, and for that, I thank each and every one of you. To my family: Thanks for always supporting me no matter what, and for always pushing me to my fullest potential. Sarah: My art buddy. Your art is fantastic and don't ever forget that. Dee: Good times, making Amanda's nose bleed... Who would have ever guessed we would become such good friends after that? Sorge: Because of you I smelled like perfume for a week. Thanks, I guess. Tyler: You've been there for me through thick and thin. I can't thank you enough. Cory: Thanks to you, I know enough to never mess with a level two ninja. Jill: The person who jump-started my writing career. I'll never forget The Black Diamond, or the many quirky characters within it. Michelle: Lots of "hooligan" moments with you! From chalk messages to signs, it was never a dull moment. Everyone else: Thanks for your company throughout the years. It's been great.

With just the blink of the eye, high school is over. To all you Underclassmen, you're going to want to keep your eyes open. There are many great times, and some not so great. (Stupid knee!) First of all, I have to thank my parents. You say that we make your life easy but it is really you guys that we owe that to, because you guys raised us right. Tory and Tyler, you guys are great brothers and I couldn't ask for anything more from you guys. Friends are next... Sam- all I can say is put the camel to bed. Nick- ripstick; Frisbee; ripstick Frisbee; thanks a lot man. Tanner- greatest friend from a different school no doubt. Stoych- I'm going to miss you just not your ego...but really I'm glad you came to this school. Baker- I like Toutles; always kept me laughing. AJ- driving range buddy; pinecroft co-worker; great times. Conforti, Cody, Pat, David, Passy, Feeny, Tom, and Laura- great times at poker. Thank you to my soccer, basketball, and tennis teams. Well, it's certainly been an adventure. In the last few years I've seen places I never thought I'd ever see, met friends, tried new things, and have had a great time doing it all. I've explored with you, gotten lost with you, climbed mountains of challenges with you. These are the things which I will never forget, and even though we are all off to new places to get lost with a whole new set of people, the experiences here will always be unique. This town, which once only was a name and a place, has become a melting pot of memories that will stay with me for the rest of my life. So here it begins, senior year, the last year of high school coming to end. It's gone by so fast. I still feel like a little freshman not knowing where to go or what to expect. My 4 years have been amazing to say the least. If it wasn't for my amazing friends, I don't know what I would do. YA, JL, MS, EO, JG, CM, CB, JL, TE, LB, MH and TR I would like to say thanks so much for helping, listening and being there for me all the time, you guys are amazing! YA you are my bestie and will always be so many unforgettable memories; Jeffrey! ily (: JL ahh, the three musketeers, ninjas, dino haha love you! We all have grown over the years and it's been great. My parents, my brother, grandparents and cousins are next to thank, love you all thanks for the support! Miss you grandma R.I.P. The picture alive, every part in its best light,
The music falling in where it is wanted, and stopping where it is not wanted,
The cheerful voice of the public road- the fresh sentiment of the road.

O highway I travel! O public road! do you say to me, Do not leave me?
Do you say, Venture not?
If you leave me, you are lost?

I've learned a valuable lesson about high school, having everything handed to me on a sliver platter and second chances. I'm gonna miss you. Nanny & Uncle Bobby: You guys are the greatest people in my life and you guys will always be there for me for best and worst, thank you. Be-Fri: My dearest bestest friend I don't know how to describe what I want to say to you besides I Love You Forever. Nick: I Love You. We will always be friends and most importantly we will always be family. Don't Forget that. Dad: I really do appreciate everything, thanks. Cayla: I Love You, you're always gonna be my sister, you're always gonna be the one I pick on and I do it outta love. You're gonna be the one I'm gonna share lots of laughs with, especially the laughs about ridiculous nothing. Mom: You are my best friend, and I don't know what I would do with out you. You're always there and that's what I love about you. You make my life crazy and fun. "You're my sunshine, And I want you to know, That my feelings are true, I really love you, You're my best friend."

Man the years have flown by. It feels like yesterday I was walking into the first grade and BOOM senior year is already here. Mom and Dad thanks for always being there for me and supporting me in everything that I do. Kerri and Brendan, thanks for being there for me. You guys are the best. Aunts thanks for always being there for me. Kelli and Ryan, I couldn't ask for any better cousins than you two. B and Fuzz some many great memories growing up, you two truly are great friends. Mike you are like a brother to me. So many great baseball memories. Also I will never forget driving around listening to your IPOD and playing songs from play list H. So many more great memories to come. Derek so many great memories "I'll cuff you right now sir." Ben some many great times together, quoting movies and having dance parties that no one shows up to lol. Nick great times rollin around in the G6. Dan great times quoting Seinfeld gotta love Kenny Bania. Nish and Zac couldn't find two better people to talk sports with. Congratulations class of 2011 and good luck.

High school has been awesome. Like anything else, it definitely had its ups and downs. But overall, I know I'm going to end up missing it. At WBHS, I've met the best people and had the best laughs. It's crazy to think about how different I was walking into high school. Now that I'm on my way out, I'm realizing how much I've grown up. High school wouldn't have been what it was if it weren't for my family, teachers, and every one of my friends: thank you all so much. And, of course, I need to especially thank Rachel, my Bobbsey twin, my othah half, my best friend. You're the only reason I stayed sane the past 4 years. Thank you for always being there. But honestly, I feel so lucky to be graduating with all of you. I feel like I've gotten to know most of you and you're all incredible people. Every single one of you has either helped me out or made me laugh at some point (whether you realize it or not), and I don't take that for granted, even for a second. This class deserves the very best and I'll miss seeing you all!

I honestly cannot believe it's senior year already! High school has gone by faster than I ever thought it would. Mom & Dad- thank you so much for always believing in me and pushing me to do my best, you guys are the best parents I could ask for, love you both! To all of my family- thank you all. I'm beyond lucky to have such a close, crazy, wonderful family, love you all so much! To all the GALS!- We've been together since day one and I couldn't have asked for more amazing people to spend all the school years with. From kindergarten till high school we've been like a family. I love you all and I'm going to miss everyone more than anything! <3 Nina, Katie, Alex- My sisters & best friends always & forever! Matty- You've made all the years of high school worth while for me, thank you so much for being my best friend through it all. Last but not least, Class of 2011- WE DID IT! Good luck to everyone in everything you wish to do in life. It's been a crazy ride and now it's finally a new chapter. Goodbyeeee WBHSSSS!

We wish for you a joy-filled transition from from the shelter of school to the wide world of your accomplishment and success. We wish for you new, stimulating friendships, while you cherish old friends, who provide continuity and comfort. We wish for you a smooth path on your journey to your chosen destination, and as much delight in your off-road adventures as there is in reaching your goal. Congratulations, graduates! May the world embrace you, excite you, and strengthen you in everything you do

Your diploma means a future without boundaries,
A world that's full of energy and fun. So as you reach for all life has to offer,
Remember that you're second to no one.
Pursue your goals, yet keep your loved ones close,
As you utilize your talent and ambition.
Let your friends and family give you their support,
And you'll master every challenging transition.
And always know you can achieve
The things you really want, if you believe.

High School didn't go by quickly for me. I had both good and bad experiences, but the good ones made it worth it. My friends made classes fun and, I've had so many great memories with them after these years. I'm thankful to my parents for always encouraging me and helping me find amazing opportunities. I wouldn't be the same if I hadn't taken art class my freshman year, and met Mrs. Tetler; Over the next four years I came to love that class and the awesome times I had there. Senior year has been unlike any other, I had an unforgettable internship with Veronica Hebard, an incredible artist, and I learned so much from it.
I'm ready for new experiences and challenges, but I won't forget my time here.
Good luck everyone!

High school really dragged on for me, but at least I can say I've gotten a few good things out of it. Three things, actually. Because of art class with Mrs. Tetler I've gotten so much better at art and know that this is what I'll follow in life. Because my parents let me follow my dreams, I got to intern at a tattoo parlor, Secret Society. It's been an amazing experience and I know it's something I also want to do in my future. And because I went to WB, I met Andy, and I definitely wouldn't be where I am now without him. I love you baby.
It's definitely time for me to move on, but I'm excited to see where my art will take me.
Good luck and goodbye, we're off to never-never land ;P

As much as I'm ready to move forward with my life, I can't help but think back at past memories. Thank you to my Mom, Dad, Kevin, Courtney, Danny and Lola for being a supportive family. Also, thanks to all my friends, who have left me with times I'll never forget: Alissa, Mikayla, Catherine, Andrew and my Cape Cod girls: Liz, Ellyn, Megan, and Bri. Without you guys, I don't know how I could have survived any of these years. I will miss you guys so much, we better stay in touch. No matter how much I want to deny it, there will always be a tiny part of me that will miss high school. Good Luck and Congratulations Class of 2011!

I would say I can't believe I made it, but I can. I'm very proud of myself for how far I've come since even last year. It took a lot of tough work and a lot of stress but I did it. I wouldn't have made it here without my family and my best friend. I love all of you so much. Mom, I owe my life to you and I don't think I tell you enough how much I really do appreciate you. Kel, you're my sister, I'm lucky to have you and I don't think you realize how much I love you. You're amazing. Ma, Grampy, and Nikki, you're the best people with the biggest hearts in this entire world. Erika, even though you're my cousin, you're like my big sister and I honestly think I would be a completely different person without you, thank you. Kaylee, I honestly would have hated these last four years if it weren't for you. You're more than my best friend; you're more like my soul mate. You make me "feeling like kites!" As much as I hated high school, I'm really going to miss it. Thank you everyone.

People have always said how time flies by, but I guess I never thought it would actually go by this fast. My friends have been there through it all, and I don't know what I would do without them. MH, JR, ES, JL, YA, SM, EM, SC, MG, AO, KW, DN, CS, EW, KC. But there are more then just the ones I know from school, JG, NO, KC, NM, ID, AB, MB, ED, JP, and of course PG. Peter has become an amazing part of my life, through the good and the bad he has been there to dry my tears or make me laugh. I don't know what is going to happen in the future but I'm hoping that he will always be there. No matter what, I know my family will be there for me. My mom and dad are loving, Jake is like the best friend that I can talk to about anything, and Ben is the little brother that is always a little insane. I am going to miss all the times that we've had together, but we did it! Congratulations class of 2011!

What most seniors write in their senior write up is either how fast their school years went by, or they thank all of the people in their lives that made them who they are today. And I'm basically doing the same thing as they did. Senior year did really come faster than I expected it to come. Most people say that when they're a freshman that the four years of high school is going to go by so slowly. That isn't true. It may seem like it does when going along with the time, but when the day of graduation finally comes, it's like, "Wow, this came a lot faster than I thought it would have." And there's so many people that are involved in my life that had made those days go by so quickly. Three of those people are my besties Tara, Jill and CK. Those three can always make me giggle with anything they say. Two of three of those people will be my future Animal Crossing neighbors, and that I cannot wait for. The other people, who made my life amazing, are the school friends I made and my family. Without them my life wouldn't be this awesome.

"To all my friends, I hope that every word I wrote finds you well; you know, I loved you all along."
- Treaty of Paris

Lisa Snay

Well, graduation is finally here, and I couldn't have made it without the people in my life. Thank you mom and dad, for the constant encouragement, for staying up with me on late nights filled with homework, and for being the best parents I could ever imagine. To Dani, my wonderful big sister, and amazing friend, you never fail to make me smile; never stop. To the friends I wasn't born with, but was lucky enough to find, I love you all more than can be expressed on paper. It's easy to call someone a friend when you see them every day, sit with each other at lunch, and have class together; it's when you only get to see each other every few weeks, or months even, that you discover the strength of your friendships, and I want to thank Laura Owanisian, Rachel Cardogno, and Mia Sanders, for never failing to say just what I need to hear, for all the good times we've shared, and for all the memories I'll never forget. I'm not going to say "I'll miss you," because this isn't goodbye. I can't wait for all the new memories we'll make in college and after.

From they day you step into high school, everyone tells you that it flies by and you need to enjoy it while it lasts. They weren't kidding. High school's been one of the best experiences of my life and it wouldn't be fair to leave without thanking a few people who made it what it was. Mom, Dad, Curtis, Tallila- You guys are the best. I wouldn't have made it here without you. Tom- Adventurous adventures, blue drank, orange drank, and that bearskin blanket. Cole, Baker, Conforti, Sam, Nick, and Cody- Poker Night. Did I do that thing where I repeat what you said? 12 year olds on cruise ships. Ski Club. ABANDONED! Laura- Bro-chatting on the swings at the playground all night. Liv- Bess frann. =) You're awesome. Sarah- * wink * Katie- You're ridiculous. Don't know what I'd do without you. Kendra- Math since sophomore year! "Does your cat usually bring in baby rabbits?" MASC Board and StuCo- You guys are awesome! I wouldn't be the same without you! And finally, To the Class of 2011...We did it! Congratulations!

Congrats class of 2011, we did it! These past 4 years have gone by so fast and it's scary yet exciting to think that soon enough we'll all be moving on to bigger and new things. I want to thank my family and friends for helping me get to where I am today. I don't know what I'd do if it weren't for you guys helping me through these past years. I just want to shout out to my mom, dad, andrea and alec for putting up with me all these years and supporting me in everything I do. And to my friends, thanks for making highschool so much fun, especially those of you who i've been friends with since the Christ Lutheran days. I couldn't have asked for a better group of people to be friends with. & I can't forget my lady lions basketball team! SO many hilarious memories between the seasons and Bentley! <3 you guys WHOO-RAHH! But now that highschool's really over I wish everyone good luck in everything they do! Throughout my four years of high school here at West Boylston, I can barely recognize how much I've actually changed. Whether it be mentally or physically, I can safely say that I am not the same person as I was then. My progression as an individual cannot be accredited to myself only. I would like to start off by thanking my entire family for encouraging me to be the best that I can. Thank you Mom and Dad for always helping me through school and life itself; I will make you even more proud. Also, thank you to all my friends, teachers, coaches, or anybody else who has made a positive impact on my life. You've made my time here at West Boylston worth more than I could have imagined. I can't believe it's senior year already! High school really has gone by so fast. It seems like yesterday we were all walking into kindergarten on our first day of school. First, I want to thank my family for continually supporting me in everything that I do. Mom, Dad, Matt - I have no idea what I'd do without you: thank you for everything. To the girls - high school wouldn't be the same without all of you. We have so much fun no matter what webo throws at us. Thank you for always making me laugh. Caity, we've stayed best friends through it all! I couldn't imagine getting to where I am today without you. Rae, thanks for saving my life back in the swingset days! Magda, cheesecake and chuckecheese for life. Kev, thank you for always being there and for being my best friend. Ms. Montuori, Mrs. Carter, & Ms. DeRosa: thank you for all you have done for me. I just want to thank my family for being there when the going was getting rough and I had to hang tough to make it. My friends, I hopefully will see again because I cherish anyone that actually can understand half of what I am even saying or get some of my lame puns and stupid jokes to make life go by faster. Oh okay, I will thank my teachers, too. I mean I guess they were useful in a way that made me ready for college. This school is really the not-home that is home for me and I cherish every minute in this building. (Okay I definitely lied there, but still you get the idea.) Thanks for a wonderful time West Boylston and I hope to see everyone again when I am older, have kids and have a high paying six figure job.

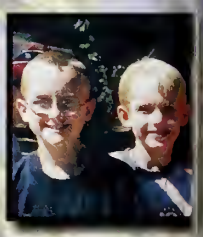
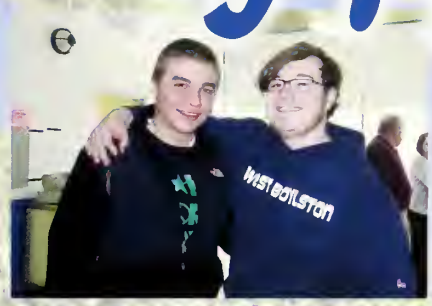
Looking Back

These are my people, this is where I come from. We're giving this life everything we've got and then some.
- Rodney Atkins



Is this where you expected to be? Where do you see yourself in five years? Reminisce on your past, but more importantly, look toward your future.

& Moving Forward



I'm movin' on.
At last I can see life has been patiently waiting for me
And I know there's no guarantees,
but I'm not alone.
There comes a time in everyone's life
When all you can see are the years passing by.
- Rascal Flatts

"One always begins to forget a place as soon as it's left behind."
- Charles Dickens

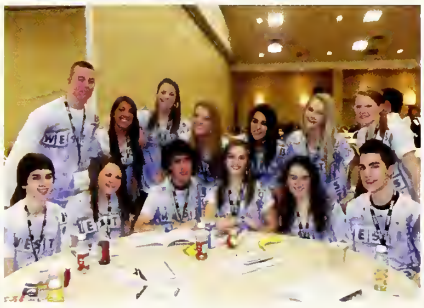
Miles of MEMORIES

Are we there yet?

Good Times!



Remember this?

A special thank you to Mrs. Hudson for accompanying us!

You will look back on the times you laughed and you will cry. You will look back on the times you cried, and you will laugh. You will always remember close friends, and keep memories of them in your heart.

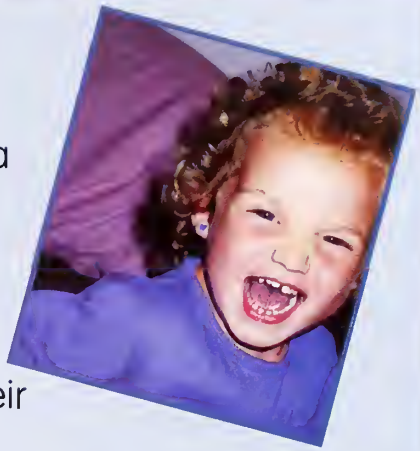
May Your Future Be Bright

LYNSAY,
You are a shining example of what a daughter can be...
loving & compassionate,
determined & independent,
honest & principled.
You are what every parent wishes their daughter would be and we are so proud of you. Never stop becoming all you were meant to be - it's your time to live your dreams and pursue your goals. No matter where you may be or where you will go, we'll be right there with you.
LOVE MOM, DAD, MATT, & ROCKY



Lynsay,
Your accomplishments are too numerous to mention all of which make your whole family so proud of you. We wish you the best in whatever path you choose for your future.
Love, Grampa and Ruthie

Kayla, I'm so proud of you!
You've been through a lot Senior year.
I love you always & forever - Mumma
Finally graduating! Good luck in your future years to come! We're so proud of you & love you so much.
Love always, Erika, Justin, Nannie & Uncle Mark

Mary Grace

"Nothing is as real as a dream. The world can change around you, but your dream will not. Responsibilities need not erase it. Duties need not obscure it. Because the dream is within you, no one can take it away."

Gracie, congratulations on moving one step closer to your dream.
We believe in you and will always be there when you need us!
We love you! Mom, Dad & Bridget

Matt Baker

Congratulations, Matt!

We're so proud of you...

Love,

Mom, Dad, Pete, Abby and Lilo

Congratulations Cole!

You've always made us proud

Love,
Mom and Dad

Kaitlyn

You never gave up in the face of so many challenges. Your strength and detrmination leave us in awe. We are more proud of you than words can say! We love you!

CONGRATULATIONS DAVE

As you graduate,
there are so many things
being wished for you...
You are wished
a world of adventure
and experience...
You are wished
strength and confidence,
satisfaction and joy
in all that you pursue...
And this, the greatest wish-that you'll always remember what a special person you are and how fortunate the world is to have you in it.
We Love You
Gramma & Papa

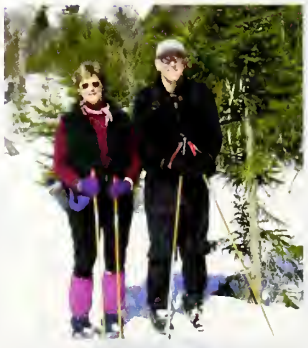
Congratulations
Ms. Beverly Schofield
and
Ms. Tina Hebert

The senior class wishes to congratulate Mrs. Beverly Schofield on her retirement after thirty years at West Boylston High School. Mrs. Schofield taught us so much more than physical education. She runs the entire graduation process and keeps the senior class on top of deadlines and important steps before walking across the stage. We are entirely grateful for her consistent support and wish her the best of luck in the future.

Congratulations to Ms. Tina Hebert on her retirement! Ms. Hebert has been an avid part of the West Boylston School System for twenty two years, teaching band and music to grades six through twelve. She advises the Tri-M Music Society and spends countless hours preparing for spring and fall concerts to showcase student's talents. We will miss you!

Congratulations

Mr. Thomas Kane



Moving on into Retirement!

The Class of 2011 wants to thank Mr. Thomas Kane for his nine years of extreme dedication to the West Boylston School District. Being Superintendent is a very large responsibility and Mr. Kane is leaving huge shoes to fill after his retirement. All of West Boylston is sure to miss him and his tireless efforts to ensure the school system is a safe, educational, challenging, and rewarding learning environment. Mr. Kane has been actively involved within the school community, participating in the many events West Boylston has to offer. He always runs the track for the annual Turkey Trot, proudly wears his pink ribbon to support Breast Cancer Awareness, and attends several sporting events to cheer the Lions to victory. We will all sincerely miss Mr. Kane's smiling, charming presence throughout our West Boylston hallways.
